Comments:

This Website is a wonderful world of beauty and Ms Sarah Brightman deserves nothing less. She is a very special human being, so talented, so graceful, so charming, so very beautiful and at the same time so nice and humble. On my list of the most talented people on earth, she's right up there with my other hero, Tiger Woods. She is the songbird of humanity with her unique soprano voice. However, she has started her career as a dancer and she is very good at it. Every little movement of her body is pure poetry. The look of her beautiful eyes and the way she dresses, make Sarah an extremely attractive person. Again, she is such a beautiful person outside and in the back of your mind, you know she's all gold inside.

Thank you again, John, for your wonderful tribute to my Diva Sarah Brightman.

Juste un petit mot en français...

Merci John pour ce merveilleux site qui rend un très bel hommage à Sarah. Je pense que tu serais d'accord avec moi, les mots seuls ne peuvent pas rendre hommage à cet ange de la musique. Il fallait un site qui sorte de l'ordinaire et n'épargner aucun effort pour ne mettre que de la beauté autour d'elle. C'est une personne au talent démesuré, d'une exceptionnelle beauté qui commande l'admiration. Elle est notre déesse et nous l'adorons, n'est-ce-pas. Merci pour le beau travail.

Hi John, my name is Nara. I signed your guest book before. I came across your website. I looked you up through Joanna's Beautiful Sarah B. website. I have to agree with you, about everything I read about Sarah Brightman, on your website. Sarah is so beautiful and an inspiration and a lot more to a lot of people. I first found Sarah Brightman out in 1995, through KPBS television, which is located in San Diego in the USA. Sarah became my favorite when I saw a concert of Sarah Brightman through KPBS television, the concert called Eden. Sarah looked like a real doll in some of those pretty dresses she wore. When there was this dress she wore which resembled a doll I purchased more than 5 years ago wearing a red Spanish dress, I named the doll after Sarah B. The doll also has very pretty eyes, close to Sarah color eyes. When I first saw her concert of Eden on KPBS television I asked myself who is this beautiful and talented lady? I said wow. I loved Sarah B. ever since. Sarah is also an inspiration to me. Sarah is always in my heart as she is in yours. John you and your family were so blessed to have gotten the great opportunity to have met Sarah Brightman the Angel of Music, in Winnipeg. I will never be blessed to meet the beautiful singer, Sarah Brightman, but I will go to every music store that I can, close to my area and see if they have cds and dvds of Sarah Brightman, the ones I do not have. I cherish Sarah B. as I cherish all of her music, cds and dvds. In August 14, on Sarah's birthday, I get all of Sarah's cds and dvds out and make my own concert of Sarah Brightman. I make her concert in my bedroom and living room as a memory of Sarah. I have so much fun. My family are not into Sarah but they see me taking interest in Sarah Brightman, so much. My family says Sarah is very pretty. My sister says that Sarah has very pretty eyes. John I had a great time signing your guest book, once again.

Sarah Brightman best voice ever. I know a girl that is like 20 something named Sarah that sounds just like her. Sarah Afshar or whatever. No one sings like Sarah, and no one brings tears of joy to me like Sarah. I especially am moved when she is performing a duet. There are times when her partner sings while she is silent. Her silence radiates a gentle, loving, tender spirit as she admires and gives 100% of her attention to her partner. You are a blessed person to have gotten a hug from Sarah. I would imagine that you still feel her embrace after all this time.

Dear John

Your site is absolutely great. I keep returning to it!! However, I did notice one of my favorite DVDs of Sarah is not listed/included in your site. This is of course Sarah performing on Lloyd Webbers "Royal Albert Hall Celebration". This is a pity. It would be nice for you to include or cite this, as I feel Sarah is at her "most beautiful" in this DVD, and her singing is absolutely wonderful (especially "The Phantom of the Opera" with Antonio Banderas - without doubt the best I have ever seen/heard, and "Music of the Night" again absolute perfection, although her other performances on the DVD are also wonderful. I just thought if you listed this then it may draw visitors attention to what is in my view one of Sarah's best DVD performances. People do not know what they are missing if they have not seen this DVD!! Just a thought.

Kindest regards

Matthew Collins

I just started listening to Sarah and recently saw her Harem Tour when it stopped in my hometown. I am only 19 years old, and all my friends think I am nuts for listening to opera/classical but I have fallen completely in love with Sarah. Her music, her look and just her whole persona completely fascinates me. I originally looked into her when I found out she was a practitioner of Kabbalah which I also am but I am so glad I have found her and I truly think she is a remarkable person.

John,

Thank you so very much for creating this website. I appreciate your thoughtfulness as well as your heartfulness! I've listened to Sarah's Classics CD for the last year. Several songs carried me through some interesting transitions. Am now in the process of acquiring every recording and DVD! For the last several years, I've conducted my own private study into giftedness. Although my closest contacts in this "group" have been with medical researchers I find the primary traits remain the same. At the core of these is a special knowledge of the heart of the universe. Very different from talent no matter how rich. Sarah's being is giftedness. She brings a tender, rich, sensuous healing into the world no matter what style she wraps her angel voice around. I am grateful that we have her at this time in history. I am grateful that I can hear her sing and be transformed by it. Others are too in a way I love!

Shortly after the elections here...well let's just say that a few felt rather dismal including myself. I put on Sarah's Classics. A known healer who sits behind me at work asked who was singing because her heart was kept open and hopeful because of it. Indeed!

Respectfully,

Your American Friend,

Jacqueline Claire Sterling

I just want you to let you know that you are in for a spectacular night when Sarah graces your presence on the 22nd. I had attended both shows at the Florida portion of the tour and needless to say that I was deeply impressed by the scale, grandeur, and beauty of the entire event. Being a college student and rather lacking in the financial area, I had gotten a job just to be able to purchase tickets. I must say that was the best purchase I had ever made and the experience was far more precious and valuable than the heavy sum I handed over. Sarah is at the top of her game and shone like golden ray of sunlight on a cloudy overcast day. There will be moments when your heart will stop almost completely because you would never think that something so perfect and beautiful could ever exist in the living world.

Saw her Harem Tour at the Fleet Center in Boston last night. She is a perfect angel. Her voice puts me into a trance. I cried when she came out. She looked beautiful and so graceful. Tickets were very $$$ but she was worth it all. We sat in the 12 row on the floor. We were 20 ft. From her. She sang for just about 3 hours, it was too short. I could have listened to her all night.

I absolutely adore Sarah Brightman. If I could become any woman at all, she is who I'd want to be. If I were blind, I'd still make that decision based upon her voice alone. The ethereality of her bel canto is mesmerizing. Sarah's voice is the solution to any world conflict. Though her detractors scorn her for 'watering down' and 'defiling' arias, which, according to them, were composed for 'real' coloraturas and opera singers, she has made monumental steps in bringing those who would never attempt to listen to opera at all closer to it. That within itself deserves praise. So get off your high horses. Sarah never proclaimed to be an opera singer anyway.

This is my first time at this website, and, I must say, it's one of the classiest Brightman-devoted sites I've seen. I like the floral decor, too. Keep up the good work. Sarah deserves beauty surrounding her name.

I first heard her in 1997 (Timeless) and I haven't been the same since...! Sarah Brightman is the absolute most talented living performer (!) with an extraordinary gift; she has a voice with incredible beauty (!!!) I have been listen(ing) to classic(al) music for the last 26 years (I am 42) and all the opera Divas, but nobody else, has this breathtaking, stunning range and beauty...! On top of all this, she is also a very attractive woman...!

But Sarah. I (am) missing an acoustics recording, in a church, with Classic Opera aria, with out, all the technique (!!!!!!!) and Sarah there is too many repeating on your CD...!

Best regards.

Your Favourite Sarah Song: Eden

Comments:

Sarah really rises above the competition, and to me, ranks up there with Loreena McKennitt, Enya & Marcome. Although it is a little disappointing that she does not write her lyrics or music. I think she has a huge talent but she does so little with it. All in all, a truly great singer.

Hey all! I'm a huge fan of Sarah....her music, her voice and her style. I guess she's been pretty quiet these days. So, in the meantime, I've been listening to this new artist, Sissel. I hear she's pretty big in Europe and just released an album in the US. I was happy to see that she is one of the featured artists at Windowsmedia.com.

Hi John

First of all I would just like to say what a beautiful site you have. It is obvious that you have taken great care in creating it. Secondly, I would like to say congratulations on meeting Sarah. What a wonderful day that must have been! It was inspiring to read about your experience. I had heard a long time ago rumors that Sarah was not a very nice person, and that she was considered to be a "diva" in the bad sense of the word. I never wanted to believe any of this as she always seems to come across as a very loving kind person. You proved just that, and I am glad.

Email me anytime you want to talk Sarah talk :) Amy

Hi there:

I'm a new fan so I haven't got a favorite album yet. I do however have a favorite song. In fact that is what led me to your site. I was looking for a specific song that I heard her perform the other night on the TV, but I don't know what it's called. The lyrics contain the words "When I was very young", which I assumed was the title but I'm unable to find anything that matches. I was wondering if you might recognize it. I was absolutely swept away by this song and since have been obsessed with finding it. If you or one of your visitors to the site knows the title and album of the song to which I'm referring I would really appreciate an e-mail.

Your site is a beautiful tribute to an extraordinary woman. Nice work.

Sarah is the greatest singer alive!!! From her stunning outfits, to her stunning voice!! She obtains such beauty it's unspeakable! I would give anything to meet her, or see her live. I've been a big fan of opera (and I'm only 16!!!) and she is my favorite singer. She beats any teenybopper any day, and when I make my friends listen to her CDs, they all fall "victim" to her lovely rhythm and voice, and become indulged in her enigma music. It's like she's an alien to them, but they always fall into the enchanted splendor!!

This is also a very wonderful site you have created! Congrats!!

Dear John,

I'm just surfing in your Sarah site and I love it so much. I especially appreciate your "My thoughts on Sarah and Her Music", which describes what I want to say but can't say. I'm not a native English speaker and I couldn't express my feeling for Sarah and her music as well as you in English. But I really love her music. I came to know Sarah very late, because she is not so popular in China (where I'm from). Two years ago I happened to watch Sarah's concert (Eden) on New Zealand TV One and was deeply touched by the music. My feeling at that time was exactly what you've described in your review. From that time, I've become Sarah's loyal fan and I think I'll be forever.

Thank you for your wonderful review and fabulous web site.

Best regards, Rainbow

I've been Sarah's fan since 1987, from the very first notes of her performance in "The Phantom". For years she was unknown here in Finland (until Time to Say Goodbye). I've seen One Night in Eden here in Finland and travelled to London for her La Luna concert and Sarah in Concert (so I've seen her and Andrea Bocelli live on stage). Her voice has really changed my life. She is stunning, creative and very nice woman. It is truly great artistic justice that she now sends shivers down the spine for millions of people ...and I always knew she would... I'm so glad I found her voice and albums back in the late 80s.

Friendly yours, Antti

Hi John.

I was also at the Winnipeg concert. It was a wonderful experience to have seen and heard the Angel of Music in real life!

I first discovered Sarah when I was 14, I was looking for a song called "Once in A Lifetime" by a group called Sisters of Oz (only at that time, I didn't know who sang the song) -- in a cd mail order catalogue and found the song by Sarah. I ordered my first Sarah CD (Dive) and the rest was history... :)

Wonderful Tribute! Thanks for letting me sign :)
